

The Brad Patrick Memorial Scholarship

The Brad Michael Patrick Memorial Scholarship was established in 1989 following his death at age fifteen.

Brad was an outstanding special young man who was very active in our church, our community, and in all of our lives. His life was taken by a drunk driver on December 29, 1989. Brad was unable to complete his goals in life and further his education due to this tragic event. All of his life he was a faithful son, a faithful friend, a faithful brother, and a very loving and caring member of our church.

His friends and family endow this financial aid as a scholarship for a person(s) in financial need from Rowan County, North Carolina. This scholarship is in loving memory of Brad so that, even in his death, his dreams and goals might be fulfilled by a fellow Christian who otherwise may not have been able to accomplish these goals.

The family and friends of Brad Michael Patrick wish the recipient(s) persistence in obtaining their educational goals in memory of Brad.

Considerations in awarding this scholarship are:

1. Community Involvement
2. School Involvement
3. Financial Need

The winner of this scholarship typically receives a onetime award of $1000.00.

Requirements: Rowan Salisbury Public High School Senior with a financial need to further their education.
